

Natalie R. Scarlett

natalie.r.scarlett@gmail.com

nataliescarlett.com &

huckleberryliterary.com

Work Experience:

Mango Languages, Creative Scriptwriter/Writing Mentor/ Product Developer for language app march 2021-present

The Lyric Cinema, “culture mother” in charge of all family programs and events, 2021-present

Private English Tutor and Freelance Copy Editor, 2016-present

Liberty Common High School, English and Drama high school teacher. 2013-present

Cipher Creative Productions, Founder, Producer, Writer, and Director. 2016-present

Salt Magazine, Performing Arts Writer. 2017-2019

Gyeseong Girls School in Seoul, South Korea, visiting English teacher. 2016

OpenStage Theatre, theatrical director for many plays. 2012-present

B.A.S.E Camp Site Director, Tavelli Elementary. 2012-2013

WorkAway, volunteer in 7 countries in Europe. 2011-2012

Ridgeview Classical School, Apprentice Teacher.

Education:

B.A. in Theatre and Speech with an emphasis in Directing

See CV for conference, workshop, and continuing education experience

Community Involvement:

Volunteer at Vindeket food rescue

Culture Mother/Educational event coordinator at The Lyric Cinema

Filmmaker of numerous short films

Arts Blogger for Fort Collins Downtown Creative District

Performing Arts Writer at Salt Magazine

Volunteer with Weekend Warrior Film Festival

Regular writer for Aspect: Ratio Zine

Grant writer and sponsorship seeker for the Fort Collins Fringe Festival

Founder and chair of the Festival of Ideas

Founder of LCHS theatre program

Local Organizer for the Favorite Poem Project

EF International tour guide

References:

Jeremy Tullius, English teacher and colleague at Liberty and Ridgeview—(970) 685-2511

Nick Holland, Collaborator on numerous writing, theatre, and art projects—(720) 688-4707

Raissa Huntley, Editor of Camp Collins (satirical newspaper)—(970) 443-3681

Dr. James Brandon, Theatre Professor at Hillsdale College—(517) 437-7341